

6.c Instead of the reference east and west, why not change the language to be inclusive by using, “Physically connect.” It sounds more inclusive than east west. . I also like the term “Safe Streets” vs. the word roads.

1. # 6. c Physically connect the East and West sides of Petaluma with new roadways, bicycle and pedestrian crossings, and multi-use options.

New sentence: Physically connect Petaluma by Safe Streets, bicycle and pedestrian crossing, and multi-use option.

9.d divides midtown. I like the phrase “Complete neighborhoods. Phrases should be universal throughout the General Plan.

2. # 9. d Pursue new development in the “midtown” area between the Petaluma River and Highway 101 (excluding the established neighborhoods). What lands between the Petaluma River and Highway 101 is the language referring to?

New sentence: The city shall strive toward complete neighborhoods, and prohibit development in “midtown” in areas between the Petaluma River and Highway 101.
